

The McCook Tribune.

TWENTY-FIFTH YEAR

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 9, 1906

NUMBER 2

The Bee Hive Spreads Out.

One of the neatest improvements consummated, this summer, by a McCook merchant, is that just completed by D. W. Colson & Co., of The Bee Hive. They have been cramped for room for some time, and in seeking a way out of the situation fell upon the natural scheme of converting the second-story of their building to their own use, and with results very highly satisfactory to themselves and to their growing trade.

Partitions have been removed and the entire upper story has been remodeled, papered and painted for the reception of their shoes, hats, tin and granite ware, fancy and table chinaware departments. Besides a suitable room has been provided for a private business office and for the use of patrons who desire to write letters or to tidy up a bit. This latter idea is a thoughtful one and will be appreciated by the public.

This new arrangement makes it possible to place their goods enumerated above in separate departments, giving largely increased room and added convenience to patrons and proprietor. Hats and shoes together, tin and granite ware, and chinaware.

The second-story is reached by a staircase running up from the store-room below.

James P. Smith Laid to Rest.

James P. Smith passed away last Sunday, at the farm a few miles west of McCook, after an illness of some duration. The funeral was held on Wednesday at 10 o'clock in the Catholic church, Rev. Loughran conducting the services, which were largely attended. Interment was made in Calvary cemetery.

[JAMES P. SMITH was born February 14, 1868. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. and a devout member of the Catholic church of this city.]

CARD OF THANKS.

Thanks are due to the A. O. U. W. and to the kind friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us in the sickness and after the death of our beloved son and brother.

Mrs. M. Smith and Family.

"Spilled" Spoiled Eggs.

Some unknown party or parties "spilled" some spoiled eggs at the east ward school building, last Thursday night. Shame!

The Ocean Wave washer still leads them all. Try one at Coleman's.

Simpson's and American prints 5c. Thompson's.

Light Cambric night gowns at Thompson's.

Their Sixth Annual Gathering.

The sixth annual banquet of the McCook high school alumni held in the east ward school building, last Saturday evening, was notable among other facts in having the largest attendance in the history of the association, some seventy persons being present.

The assembly room of the building was utilized as a reception room and as such was tastefully, simply decorated, red being the predominating color and red carnations much in pretty, attractive evidence.

A four-course lunch was served by the ladies' aid society of the Methodist church in the south room. The table decorations were in red, carnations being chief candles in handsome candelabra illuminated the festive scene.

A choice phonograph assisted in the entertainment of the guests.

Sup't Thomas acted as toastmaster and announced the following toasts, to which the responses were apropos and spicy:

Dr. R. J. Gunn '00, President. "Another Spring-Time." John W. Green '06. "The Second Largest Class." Vanche Plumb '00. "The Peru State Normal." Clifford W. Browne '03. "The University of Nebraska." W. B. Mills. "A Boy's Opportunity." Mrs. E. E. Magee '90. "Greetings." Nellie Gunn '98. "The Largest Class." John L. Rice '02. "The Simple Life." It was a gathering of pleasant memories.

A Strong Dental Combination.

A combination of dental business has been consummated by Dr. A. T. Gatewood of Arapahoe and Dr. E. O. Value of McCook. Main offices will be continued in McCook and Arapahoe and business will be conducted at 23 outside towns in Southwestern Nebraska and Northwestern Kansas. These gentlemen will have six operators, all of them registered graduates and men of experience. Dr. Gatewood was the first dentist McCook had, he being here in 1882. Dr. Value has steadily gone to the front in the business during the few years he has operated in McCook and this section of the state. This new dental firm is a strong one and success must naturally be their's, possessing as they do the latest and up-to-date appliances of the profession and the skilled operators necessary to use them.

A New Business Man.

This week, the Stokes grocery passed into the hands of William C. Blair, who is now in charge, Mr. Stokes retiring, though still assisting Mr. Blair temporarily. Mr. Blair comes from Wauwata, where he formerly was in the milling business with Mr. Cummings. THE TRIBUNE welcomes Mr. Blair to our city and wishes him a share of public patronage.

Records of Renown.

Comical pieces, Southern Medleys, Instrumental Rag Time and many others make up our list of PHONOGRAPH RECORDS. These are Edison Gold Moulded Records. They last nearly twice as long as any other record made and retain their tone qualities to the last. L. W. McCONNELL, Druggist.

Children's Day.

Children's day will be observed next Sunday at the Congregational church. In the morning there will be baptism of children and sermon by the pastor on "The Sunday School." In the evening the school will render a cantata entitled "Hearts of Gold." A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

Yocum-Yutzky Wedding.

Mr. William N. Yocum and Mrs. Elizabeth Yutzky, both of Frontier county, were united in marriage in this city, Tuesday of this week, Rev. M. B. Carman of the Methodist church officiating, the ceremony being performed at the home of Engineer and Mrs. W. A. Cline.

Perhaps no street in the city has shown equal improvement to McDowell, during the past year or two. "Little Russia" avenue is becoming one of the attractive residence streets of the city. Two years ago but a few buildings could be seen along its entire length.

Opening of Reservation.

The Crow Indian reservation, comprising 1,000,000 acres, just south of Billings, will be open for settlement in June. Registration will commence at Sheridan, Billings and Miles City June 14th and close June 23rd. Drawing to determine order in which selection of land may be made, will be held at Billings commencing July 2nd.

The value of an 80 acre irrigated farm in that locality is at least $50.00 an acre or $4,000.00. 35,000 acres will be put under irrigation at once, under the government plan, which is to-day nearly finished. 100,000 acres can be splendidly irrigated from Big Horn River.

The Crow Agency is one of the most magnificent tracts of land in the country which is falling as a prize to the people of the west, a very large area of land will be drawn for in tracts of probably 80 acres possibly 160 acres. The number of prizes to be drawn for is therefore very large, and the chances are all the greater for any one individual getting one of these rich prizes.

The round trip rate from McCook to Sheridan or Billings will be $20.00.
